Dear Mr. Nash:

Richmond Public Schools (RPS) received your request for records, which was submitted via electronic mail on October 24, 2019. Your request consisted of the following:

- All emails, memoranda, or other correspondence, including attachments, sent or received by the superintendent and any RRHA email address or the personal email address of CEO Damon Duncan between January 1, 2019 and the time this request is processed.

The following is an estimate of the reasonable charges, not to exceed the actual cost incurred by RPS to access, duplicate, supply, and/or search for records responsive to your request.

RPS will not continue processing your request for records until RPS receives a response from you indicating your acceptance of such charges and the payment of the deposit. As provided by Virginia Code §2.2-3704(B)(4), RPS requires seven (7) additional workdays to respond to your request. RPS staff is working to gather and provide accurate responses to your inquiry. It is not practically possible to provide you with the requested records within the five working day period.
